

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE PRESIDENT'S DAILY ACTIVITIES – Saturday, April 30, 2016

- President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf has lauded the Seventh Day Adventist Church for its contributions and partnership with government in the national development efforts of the country. She expressed gratitude to the SDA Church for its many contributions to Liberia's educational, health and other humanitarian services rendered the country. The Liberian leader made the remarks on Saturday, April 30 at the Paynesville Central Seventh Day Adventist Church at the ELWA junction in Paynesville City where she attended the Church regular Worship Service.
- President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf on Saturday, April 30, joined hundreds of Liberian Muslims under the banner Consortium of Muslims Youth Organizations, Liberia Muslim Women Network, Imman Council of Liberia, and the Liberia Muslim Ummah to honor and bid farewell to former Finance and Development Minister Amara M. Konneh. The President joined the Muslims at the Monrovia City Hall where she extolled outgoing Finance and Development Planning - Minister Konneh for dedicated services and said government has already given him appropriate recognition and honor for his outstanding services rendered Liberia.