

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE PRESIDENT'S DAILY ACTIVITIES – Tuesday, June 28, 2016

- The new United States Ambassador accredited near Monrovia, H.E. Christine Ann Elder, has praised President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf for her exceptional leadership in lifting Liberia up; giving Liberia a powerful and respected voice on the continent; giving Liberians confidence of a brighter future, while extolling the fight against corruption and assuring more U.S. support. Ambassador Elder spoke recently when she presented her Letter of Credence to President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf at the Foreign Ministry in Monrovia.
