Request for the Expression of Interest

For Consultancy Services from either:

1. A Research Institution or;
2. An Individual Consultant or Researcher.

To conduct research studies on any of the two research thematic areas specified below.

The Liberia Macroeconomic Policy Analysis Center (LIMPAC) has received funding from the African Capacity Building Foundation to conduct research on two (2) thematic areas among other things. The studies to be undertaken include:

- i. Domestic resource mobilization with emphasis on tax administration, and
- ii. Assessing the economic impact of the Withdrawal of the UN military Force in Liberia.

Through the research, problems affecting domestic resource mobilization with respect to tax administration in Liberia can be explored and remedial strategies advanced to inform policy prescriptions on revenue mobilization within the medium to long-term to close the current domestic budgetary financing gap. Similarly, qualifying and quantifying the economic impact of UNMIL (UN Military force) drawdown from Liberia can guide public policy formulation to restore and sustain growth and productivity within sectors affected by the drawdown.

Minimum qualification

The research institution or individual consultant shall have:

- Advanced degree in Public Policy, Development Studies, Economics, Finance, Taxation or of the Social Sciences;
- In-depth understanding of Liberia's tax regime and administration is an added advantage for the Domestic Resource Mobilization activity;
- At least 10 years of experience in public policy formulation and/or developmental activities within underdeveloped countries as illustrated by your publications in books, reports and/or journals;
- Experience in writing research reports, case studies and/or policy papers as illustrated by publications in books, reports and/or journals; and

- Knowledge and experience of LIMPAC's work and mandate will be considered an asset;
- Declaration of individual or institutional tax Clearance is a prerequisite.
