

Highlights of the President's Daily Activities
Friday, December 5, 2014

- President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf today attended a the prayer service for the Executive Branch of Government at the old Providence Baptist Church on Broad Street officiated by the Liberia Council of Churches (LCC). The weekly prayer service is to thank God for his bountiful mercies to the country and to pray for deliverance from the Ebola virus disease. Already the Legislative and Judicial Branches of Government have separately graced the LCC prayer service.