

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE PRESIDENT'S DAILY ACTIVITIES – Friday, July 29, 2016

- President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf and John Mahama of Ghana have agreed to cooperate in the areas of defense and security, power, and fisheries. This was disclosed by President Mahama when they addressed reporters in Accra following bilateral meetings with President Sirleaf. Mahama pointed out that Ghana is ready to provide technical expertise in developing transmission and distribution of electricity through Ghanaian private sector engagement and with support from the Volta River Authority. The President on the same day paid a one day working visit to Ghana.
