

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE PRESIDENT'S DAILY ACTIVITIES – Thursday, July 7, 2016

- President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf has acknowledged tremendous progress in spite of challenges since the Unity Party-led government captured state power in the 2005 and 2011 and called for greater unity and peace as the party galvanizes energies ahead of the 2017 political showdown. The Liberian leader made the passionate call on Thursday, July 7, when she addressed the National Convention of the governing Unity Party in Gbarnga, Bong County. She said although: "We are present here today, looking forward to tomorrow's event that will go down in the annals of history as we witness the passing of the torch."
