

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE PRESIDENT'S DAILY ACTIVITIES – Tuesday, October 11, 2016

- President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf returned home following a successful participation at the just-ended World Bank High-Level Panel on Fragility, Conflict and Violence held in Washington D. C. and said a delegation from the International Finance Corporation (IFC) is expected in the country shortly in response to an intervention made by her for international support to the growing need in the private sector. The Liberian leader made the disclosure when she addressed journalists at the Roberts International Airport (RIA), on Tuesday, October 11.
