

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE PRESIDENT'S DAILY ACTIVITIES – Tuesday, March 9, 2017

- President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf delivered the opening statement for this year's International Women Colloquium; recalling that since the first launch of the International Women Colloquium in March of 2009, the women of Liberia have been making tremendous progress - with its impact not only felt in Liberia but also around the world with women advancing everywhere and every day. She made the statement on Tuesday, March 7, at the Samuel K. Doe Sports Complex, in Paynesville City, when she opened this year's International Women Colloquium, recounting that the current gathering by women from around the world is a mark of coming to see what progress the aftermath of the 2009 International Women Colloquium has brought to Liberia.
- President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf on Monday honored Defense Minister Brownie Samukai, Outgoing UL President Dr. Emmet Dennis and the late former Internal Affairs Minister, Ambullai Bolah Johnson, posthumously. The Special Investiture ceremony was held at the C. Cecil Dennis Auditorium. The Liberian leader termed the services of the three officials as a mark of commitment that should be emulated by others. They were honored for their sacrificial services to the nation.
