

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE PRESIDENT'S DAILY ACTIVITIES – Monday, August 17, 2015

- President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf early today with Integrity Institutions including the General Auditing Commission, Public Procurement and Concession Commission, Internal Auditing Authority and the Liberia Anti-Corruption Commission.
- The Constitution Review Committee (CRC) presented its final report on the National Constitution Conference (NCC) also containing recommendations to amend the Constitution of Liberia as well as several CDs of the 1986 Liberian Constitution in the 16 local vernaculars to President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf.

During a formal presentation ceremony at the President's office, the chairperson of the CRC, Cllr. Gloria Musu Scott, on behalf of her colleagues, thanked the Liberian President for the confidence reposed in them to perform this task and for the opportunity provided them to form part of such national project. She catalogued the President's mandate given the Committee and the process they embarked on over three years to reach this point.

In response, President Sirleaf thanked the CRC for its excellent work. She also thanked the partners for the support they provided the CRC in executing its mandate.

- President Sirleaf also met with the Vice President of the ECOWAS Commission, Dr. Toga Gaweia McIntosh and a LEVY delegation who briefed her on activities at the Commission.
