

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE PRESIDENT'S DAILY ACTIVITIES - Monday, June 29, 2015

- President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf has held a major meeting with stakeholders in the educational sector. She was joined by Education Minister George Werner and Deputy Education Minister for Instruction, Dr. Romell Horton.

At the meeting held at her temporary Foreign Ministry office, the Liberian Chief Executive welcomed the stakeholders and informed them that considering the need for urgent reform of the educational system, she thought it wise to invite them for consultation, hear their concerns and solicit their inputs about the educational system and make suggestions on the reform particularly how all actors and stakeholders working in concert with the Government can bring some improvement and sanity to the sector.

Educational stakeholders present at the meeting included Sister Mary Laurene Brown of Stella Maris, Sister Barbara Brilliant of Mother Pattern, the Catholic Education Secretariat, the head of St. Theresa Convent, the Methodist school system, the Episcopal school system, the Baptist school system, Lutheran school system, the Salvation Army School system, Rev. Olu Menjay of the Baptist-run Ricks Institute, the President of the National Principals Association, UNICEF-Liberia, European Union Delegation in Liberia, USAID, Madam Olive White, among others.
