- President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf departed the country today to attend the 47th Ordinary Session of ECOWAS Heads of State and Government in Accra, Ghana. She is attending the summit meeting at the invitation of Ghanaian President John Mahama, who is also Chairman of the Authority of Heads of State and Government of ECOWAS.

Though the agenda of the meeting has not been released, the meeting is believed to be centered on issues of common interest and security challenges affecting the sub-region. It might also consider updates on the diminishing Ebola epidemic in the sub-region, a review of the security situation in parts of Cameroon, Chad and Nigeria and the planned deployment of the 7,000-strong multi-national joint task force, among other important matters.
