

Special Statement By H.E. George Manneh Weah to Muslims on the Occasion Marking the Observance of Ramadan

My heartfelt greetings to all of our Muslim brothers and sisters across Liberia and the entire Islamic Community as you embark on your religious journey of Ramadan.

On the eve of your sacred encounter with Allah, I, as President of the Republic of Liberia, and on behalf of the Government of Liberia, Would like to wish you a Blessed and successful Ramadan.

As you observe this Holy month of Ramadan, it is my hope that Allah will answer your prayers, honor your sacrifices, and grant your heart desires.

I also pray that you will use this time of fasting and Praying to intercede for your leaders and beloved nation; so that God will guide us all as we work collectively for a better and prosperous Liberia.

On the eve of your religious journey, I herewith reaffirm my Government's commitment to religious tolerance and a peaceful co-existence between the Islamic Community and other religious groups across Liberia.

I am confident that we will all continue to live together in peace and harmony for the betterment of our society.

May Allah renew your strength and instill peace in your hearts and bless the works of your hands during this month of Ramadan.

I Thank You!

H.E. George Manneh Weah

President of the Republic of Liberia
