- President Sirleaf chaired a Special Cabinet Meeting today where they presented their key priorities for implementation in the next three years of the administration's tenure.

The presentation comes as a result of the recent Cabinet Retreat held in Julijuah, Bomi County to draw up realistic, tangible, measurable and achievable goals for implementation during the post Ebola era.

Key ministries including the Ministries of Foreign Affairs, Justice, Defense, Health, Internal Affairs, Public Works and Education presented three top priorities to be implemented consistent with their mandates and the Agenda for Transformation.

Others will present their priorities at a subsequent meeting next week.
