

Highlights of the President's Daily Activities
Wednesday, December 3, 2014

- President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf today met with a 10-member high-level United States Government delegation headed by the Assistant Secretary of State for African Affairs, Ambassador Linda Thomas-Greenfield which also included Assistant Secretary of Defense for Special Operations/Low-Intensity Conflict, Mr. Michael Lumpkin. They are on a three-day visit to assess the current state of Liberia's fight against the Ebola virus disease, specifically U.S. support to the fight.

During a press stakeout, Ambassador Thomas-Greenfield used the opportunity to pledge the U.S. Government's continued support in addressing Liberia's humanitarian and development challenges.