Salary Le 120,000,000 per annum.

It's hard to believe that today over 663million people still don't have clean, safe water and over 2.4 billion live without a toilet. The resulting diseases kill one child every minute.

WaterAid Sierra Leone is looking for an Advocacy and Communications Manager to play a vital role in our mission to transform lives with safe water, sanitation and hygiene in the world's poorest communities.

Working within the WaterAid Sierra Leone Team, the Advocacy and Communications Manager will be responsible for;

- Leading on the communications and advocacy component of the Country Program strategy,
- Strengthening WA Liberia and Sierra Leone profile through all forms of media and electronic outlets and advocacy platforms and to improve the overall CP communications and advocacy plans for effective and impactful program delivery for targeted audiences in both countries,
- Supporting in developing and monitoring the implementation of the TB advocacy plans as designed in the Country Program Strategy,
- Reviewing existing WASH policies in the country context to ensure Governments are meeting their commitments.

To be successful, you'll need to:

- Have a relevant academic and professional qualification,
- Have a proven experience working in a communication, campaigns, advocacy and media role, including content production,
- Be committed to WaterAid's vision, mission and values and a way of working that demonstrates this, with the ability to communicate this enthusiasm to others.

Please visit our WaterAid website to download the job description.

We're looking for people with an appreciation and respect for different people and ideas, and the energy and expertise to help tackle the most important challenges.

In return, you can expect to get inspiration from the change you help make happen, a sense of belonging and the feeling of being part of a global community. You will also experience stimulation and fulfilment, the chance to grow, and space to be yourself at your best. This is our pledge to you.

If you are interested in the position and have the right skills and attributes, please send your CV (in English) and motivation letter of 350 words or less to:
