

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE PRESIDENT'S DAIL ACTIVITIES – Friday, May 29, 2015

- President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf today joined 49 other Heads of State and Governments to witness the smooth, peaceful and democratic transition of power in Africa's most populous country, Nigeria.

Mr. Muhammadu Buhari was inaugurated as Nigeria's new President at a colorful ceremony in Abuja, Nigeria following his victory over former President Goodluck Jonathan in elections held earlier this year.

On the margins of the inauguration ceremonies, the Liberian President also held talks with her Guinean and Sierra Leonean counterparts, Presidents Alpha Conde and Ernest Bai Koroma. The three Mano River Union leaders discussed matters pertaining to the ongoing fight against the Ebola virus disease that is still prevalent in Guinea and Sierra Leone.
