

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE PRESIDENT'S DAILY ACTIVITIES – Tuesday, July 26, 2016

- President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf has acknowledged Liberia as a nation of determination and resilience despite continuous vicissitudes, which have beset the nation and its people. The President made the remarks when she spoke at the official program marking the commemoration of Liberia's 169th Independence Anniversary held at the Centennial Memorial Pavilion, on Ashmun Street.