

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE PRESIDENT'S DAILY ACTIVITIES – Friday, October 14, 2016

- President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf on Friday, October 14, joined host of government officials, family members, relatives and friends at the funeral services in memory of former fallen Minister of Internal Affairs, Ambulia B. Johnson and participated in the wake-keeping of 101-year old Madam Famatta Morris. The President led an array of senior current and former government officials at the Providence Baptist Church where she paid her last respect to the distinguished public servant, statesman and a career economist. President Sirleaf attended the wake-keeping of 101 years old – Madam Famatta Morris, born September 24, 1915 and died on Monday, October 26, 2016 at her residence in Clay-Ashland, Montserrado County.