

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE PRESIDENT'S DAILY ACTIVITIES – Monday, February 26, 2018

- President George Weah has constituted a Special Presidential Task Force to retrieve all government-owned vehicles still in the possession of former government officials. The President mandated the former officials to submit within two weeks the vehicles to the Special Presidential Task Force. The Liberian leader has also directed that all former officials who had purportedly purchased vehicles from the General Services Agency (GSA) to submit these vehicles to the Special Task Force for verification.
