

Highlights of the President's Daily Activities – Tuesday, February 6, 2018

- President George Weah met in audience with representatives of the Liberia Bankers Association (LBA) at his Foreign Ministry Office. The meeting with the association was triggered by the President's earlier engagement with the leadership of the Liberia Business Association (LIBA). He spoke on Tuesday, February 6, during a well-attended meeting with representatives of all nine commercial banks in the country. He encouraged the LBA representatives to develop constructive and mutually agreeable conversation in order to improve the processes that will be accommodating to Liberian businesses.
- The Liberian President directed that all officials of government occupying tenured positions to submit to the Office of the Minister of State for Presidential Affairs their letters of appointment and Certificate of commissioning on or before Friday, February 9. The directive was issued in an Official Circular dated February 5, and signed by the Minister of State, Hon. Nathaniel McGill.
- The President also, by directive, requested that all former government officials still in possession of government-owned vehicles to submit these vehicles to the General Services Agency (GSA) on or before Friday, February 9. The directive was issued in an Official Circular dated February 5, and signed by the Minister of State, Hon. Nathaniel McGill.
- President George Weah approved additional expenditure intended to enhance banking operations on the main and Fendell campuses of the University of Liberia to facilitate the late registration of students that missed earlier deadline set. The Liberian leader further requested for the semester to be extended by one month in order to accommodate the late registration students due to the loss in time as a result of protests.
