

Highlights of the President's Daily Activities – Monday, February 12, 2018

- President George Weah has promised to build Liberia's first Military Teaching Hospital exclusively for use by the Army and other security forces. The Liberian leader made the promise when he spoke at the 61st anniversary of Armed Forces Day (AFL), which is celebrated February 11 each year. The President made the promise on Monday, February 12, at the Barclay Training Center during activities marking the celebration of Armed Forces Day.