

Highlights of the President's Daily Activities – Thursday, February 1, 2018

- President George Weah met in audience the importers of rice and stepped up efforts to ensure the price of the nation's staple food is substantially reduced and made affordable for ordinary Liberians. The Liberian leader made the comments when he met with officials of the Association of Rice Importers in the presence of Commerce and Industry Minister-designate, Prof. Wilson Tarpeh. He averred that the reduction of the prices of essential commodities is inextricably integral to his administration's pro-poor governance agenda.
