

Highlights of the President's Daily Activities – Monday, February 5, 2018

- President George Weah made additional appointments at the pending confirmation by the Liberian Senate where applicable.
- The Liberian leader on Monday, February 5, met with a delegation of the Liberia Business Association (LIBA) at his Foreign Ministry Office. The LIBA delegation congratulated President Weah on his inauguration as Liberia's 24th President and expressed their commitment to working with his administration. The meeting was attended by several representatives from various sectors of Liberian business community including the Tailor's Union; the Patriotic Entrepreneurs of Liberia (PATEL); the Paynesville Business Association and petty traders.
- President George Weah lauded departing UNMIL servicemen and women during a colorful send-off program held at the mission's headquarters in Monrovia. The President made the remarks when he spoke on Monday, February 5. He applauded the outgoing service men and women for their sacrifices and bravery in sustaining the peace in Liberia and wished the departing servicemen and women a blessed family reunion upon return to their individual families.