

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE PRESIDENT’S DAILY ACTIVITIES – Saturday, October 31, 2015

- President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf today, addressed a Special Lecture organized by the Research and Information System for Developing Countries.

She spoke on a wide range of international issues including the 2030 Global Development Agenda and its 17 Sustainable Development Goals; the establishment and history of the Non-Aligned Movement (NAM) with emphasis of the involvement of the African continent and its leaders; the Group of 77 and the role of Liberia; the foundation and operations of the United Nations; the Africa Rising 2063 Vision, gender issues, among others.

Later, President Sirleaf and delegation were also honored with a special dinner organized and hosted by the Honorary Counsel of Liberia in India and Executive Director of BIRDCGROUP, Ankur Bhatia, at one of his hotel complexes in New Delhi, India.

To help expand the service industry, Mr. Ankur intends to explore the possibility of extending his venture to Liberia to help enhance the country’s economic development program and job creation effort.