

Institution	Revenue Generation for Governance and Growth (RG3) Project
Department	Management Information System
Position Title	Software Developer
Supervisor	RG3 IT Expert /CoP
Location	Liberia Revenue Authority (LRA)
Background
The RG3 project aims to build the capacity of targeted GOL institutions, particularly the Ministry of Finance and Development Planning (MFDP) and the Liberia Revenue Authority (LRA), to improve domestic revenue mobilization in Liberia. RG3 will support the MFDP to develop the capacity to formulate sound, predictable, and fair revenue policies.
Objectives and Scope
The overall objective of this assignment is to support the LRA IT Unit in developing software to improve the tax collection process. The consultant will work with the IT Advisors in developing the offline e-Filing software and the Data Processing Center software.
Specific Activities:
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Assist IT Advisor in developing e-Filing software, including but not limited to graphical user interfaces, reports, encryption, and database interfaces. 2. Assist IT Advisor in developing Apex modules to enter tax returns filed manually into the transition database. 3. Assist in developing scripts to process payment and returns data submitted electronically. 4. Develop and maintain systems and software documentation in order to facilitate maintenance and upgrade activities. 5. Liaise with banks and mobile phone operators regarding electronic payments. 6. Other duties as may be assigned.
Deliverables
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Data Processing Center and e-Filing Software developed 2. E-Filing/E-Payment data processed into transition database
Qualification
The consultant should have the following qualifications: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Degree in computer science or related field. 2. At least 5 years' experience in software development. 3. Experience in Visual Studio, Visual Basic and PL/SQL required. 4. Experience in JavaScript preferred 5. Must be able to work in a team environment 6. Must have good oral and written communication skills
How to apply	Interested applicants may submit their application to RG3Recruit@dai.com and May 30, 2018 is the deadline at 4:30pm
	Submission requirement CV/A cover letter/Name of three professional, academic, or community service references on the CV
Effective start Date	June 11, 2018

USAID RG3 values diversity and inclusion and strongly encourages women and persons from marginalized groups to apply