

Supply Chain Manager

J-Palm Liberia is a Monrovia-based startup company that manufactures health and beauty products from palm kernels. We currently have a vacancy for Supply Chain Manager.

The Supply Chain Manager will work with the Manufacturing Operations Manager, Sales Manager and the Finance Manager to ensure that the company has the raw materials, suppliers, components and equipment needed to create amazing products for our customers on schedule and budget. As a Supply Chain Manager, your job is to manage a complex flow of ingredients and raw materials, while optimizing for quality, consistency, and cost.

Key responsibilities

- Develop and manage implementation of J-Palm's supply chain strategy, given quantity, quality and cost parameters
- Develop and maintain excellent relationships with all actors along J-Palm's supply chain – from sourcing to manufacturing to distribution. Ensure that raw materials are always available when needed, and production costs fall within budget
- Develop detailed understanding of component lead times and costs, as well as the associated supply chain risks.

Qualifications

- Minimum of a bachelors' degree in Supply Chain Management, Engineering, or related field
- At least 5 years of experience in agriculture-related supply chain and procurement in a developing country
- Proven track record of delivering results under tight deadlines and infrastructure constraints
- Strong communication skills, and ability to communicate effectively across teams

How to Apply

Email your cover letter and resume to jpalm Liberia@gmail.com, and insert "Supply Chain Manager" as the subject line. Address your letter to:

Human Resource Manager
J-Palm Liberia
Paynesville, Liberia

Deadline: Sunday May 19, 2018 at midnight