

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE PRESIDENT'S DAILY ACTIVITIES - Wednesday, July 22, 2015

- President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf today dedicated the permanent office of the Central Bank of Liberia, constructed under the leadership of Executive Governor Mills Jones. Dedicating the newly constructed 12-storey building, she described the facility as a structure that gives the Liberian capital a new outlook and puts the country on par with other central banks in the sub-region.

She challenged those in public service and the private sector that the development of Liberia depends on the vision, leadership and participation of all, adding that goals and targets are achieved only when everyone plays a part.

- President Sirleaf departed Monrovia for Sinoe and Grand Kru Counties to participate in activities marking Liberia's 168th Independence Anniversary celebrations.
