

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE PRESIDENT'S DAILY ACTIVITIES

Wednesday, May 20, 2015

- President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf today received in audience the departing head of the African Union Support to Ebola Outbreak in West Africa (ASEOWA), General Julius Oketta. He was joined on the farewell visit by director of social affairs at the African Union Commission, Ambassador Olawale I. Maiyegun and head of mission support of ASEOWA, Dr. Dioudalbay Benjamin.

She commended General Oketta and his Liberia team for the wonderful job done along with other international partners in containing the further spread of the virus. She was particularly thankful that none of the over 400 ASEOWA personnel were victimized by the virus during the discharge of their duties, adding that Liberians will remain ever grateful to them for their sacrificial service.

For his part, General Oketta expressed heartfelt gratitude to President Sirleaf on behalf of ASEOWA for her exemplary leadership and recognition of ASEOWA's role during the fight against the Ebola virus disease.
