

Highlights of the President's Daily Activities

Wednesday, January 28, 2015

- President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf received in audience the son of the late President of Liberia, Mr. Samuel Kanyon Doe, Jr., when he paid her a courtesy call today at her Foreign Affairs office.

During the meeting, the Liberian leader shared thoughts on issues of governance, development, peace and reconciliation. She stressed that it is imperative that all Liberians irrespective of their differences get involved with the process of rebuilding the country and find ways to foster peace, unity and reconciliation among all Liberians.

In response, Mr. Doe, Jr., thanked President Sirleaf for the audience and pledged his commitment and loyalty to Liberia and its people. He also endorsed the need to foster reconciliation, peace and development.

- President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf today dismissed with immediate effect, the Assistant Minister for Technical Services at the Ministry of Information, Culture and Tourism, Mr. Rixck Barsi-Giah. He was dismissed for gross insubordination and disrespect to his superior.

The Executive Mansion expressed the hope that this will serve as a deterrent and offended officials of government who may have differences among themselves will seek appropriate administrative channels for redress.
